

From left is Geoffrey Wright who is attending Wabash, Danny Capes who is attending DePauw University studying Pre-Medicine, Keri Hawkins is attending Purdue University studying Animal Science, Eric Wernke is attending Marion College, seated to the right of Eric is the daughter of the late Stan Snider, Stana McKitrick, and Shawn Kidwell is attending Purdue University. The sixth scholar was Lauren Shade and is enrolled at Earlham College.

Because of Stan Snider's generosity and devotion to education and this community, these six students were awarded $50,000 from the Snider Trust Fund.

The Snider Scholarship is open to any area high school graduating senior or college student who has not achieved an Associates Degree.