Vernon alumni celebrate their roots

The Vernon High School Alumni Association held their annual gathering May 5th in the Vernon gym. The meeting was opened with Dave Shaw ringing the old Academy bell.

The president announced that the association was able for the first time to give out three $500 scholarships. One was a renewal to an earlier winner, Lynn Marsh, who will be a senior at Calvin College at Grand Rapids, Mich.

The other two went to JCHS seniors Matthew Gee, grandson of Bob and Erma Boggs Campbell, Classes of 1955 and 1958, and Micah Bailey, grandson of Carolyn Dixon Kirby, Class of 1961.

Jeddiah Campfield, grandson of Lee Kane, Class of 1950, thanked the group for his 2006 scholarship. When Jed announced that he was a Purdue student, a rousing cheer went up from a specific corner of the gym. The scholarships are awarded to JCHS seniors who are descendants of VHS graduates or to students who are residents of Vernon, Sand Creek or Bigger Townships.

Vernon High School was in existence from 1880 to 1964. The Alumni are fortunate to be able to gather in their gym, which is virtually unchanged since their high school days.
